

APRIL 21 1:30-3:00

Recovery Messaging Training

How to use recovery messages in all parts of your life, including representing the organized recovery community in the media and other public places. Develop your personal, effective, credible language to talk about your life and experiences; know how to use the message in different situations; and make it possible for more people to get well.

Your story has power
Reduce the stigma associate with substance use disorder
——
Empower others
——
Share your strength and hope
——
Be your own voice
